

The Queenslander Pictorial.

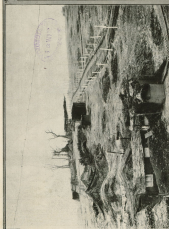

THE ROCK WINDOW

View on the Lamington Plateau, National Park.

A. H. WILKINSON, 1900.

FINISHING THE JOB ON THE WEST FRONT.

Fourth Army Headquarters on the West Front.

"Following up the lead" Australian artillery moving up after an advance on the Germans.

A panorama showing how the country was viewed at Quimper, and the line of the Australian who had dug it along the railway embankment.

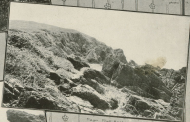

From lines of an Australian tank detachment, showing how the Germans are protected from air attack.

NORTHWARD FROM EMU PARK

By Frank
Graham

Overlooking the Southern end of Shearwater Bay

From Fort Richmond,
Shearwater Bay

Coast Beach, Shearwater Bay

Camping gaily on a natural beach - Shearwater Bay

Troubled waters, S.W.

An ocean baby

THE GRANDEUR OF QUEENSLAND'S NATIONAL PARK.

Looking down the
Albert River
Gorge

Mount
Marion

A. White,
photo.

VIEWS FROM NATIONAL PARK.

Florida
Gorge and Palm lookout

Looking into the Florida
Gorge

A. S. S. S. S. S.

WHAT IS TEST?

A row of eggs, the German fly virus, is arranged in the pot.
—C. W. Potholke photo.

0000-0001-9300-7074

The caudex branched, with a very rounded border to. This old tree is still living, and is well known in North. Great, long, and
-A. Fournier (1911).

© 1993 Blackwell Science Ltd

Lieutenant Eugene Worthington (PhD candidate) was recently awarded a fellowship to New York City, of New York, (State and University records).

© 1999 Blackwell Science Ltd Journal of Internal Medicine 245: 103–110

© 1984 MUSEUM LARSEN OF INC.

WITH OUR BOYS IN PALESTINE.

See Page 26

Is a friend or foe? Australians watching in Jordan.

Any gear on a mule—Camel drivers replace the mules.

Wounded on camels, Wadi Ajja, Jordan Valley.

Bandcart ambulance, used in the desert.

Refugees crossing the Jordan.

Typical refugees from En Sah, east of the Jordan.

The Sheriff of Mass passing through Damascus.

Ancient well of Zacharia, at the foot of the Judean hills.